JUSTICE FOR TRAYVON MARTIN ASSEMBLIES

WEDNESDAY
AUG 28

On Wed., August 28, after we've marched in Washington on Aug. 24 to commemorate the 50th anniversary of the great march against racism in Washington, D.C., led by the Rev. Dr. Martin Luther King Jr., the People's Power Assembly Movement calls on activists across the U.S. to hold local JUSTICE FOR TRAYVON MARTIN ASSEMBLIES, including rallies, speak-outs, marches in public squares or in front of federal buildings or local police headquarters.

One of the most memorable lines of Dr. King's famous "I Have A Dream" speech, delivered from the steps of the Lincoln Monument to over a quarter of a million freedom marchers, was, "I have a dream that my four little children will one day live in a nation where they will not be judged by the color of their skin but by the content of their character." The Trayvon Martin verdict is only the most recent sign that Dr. King's dream is still a nightmare for Black and Brown youth.

THERE IS A RACIST WAR AGAINST BLACK & BROWN YOUTH

Youth of color are routinely profiled by the police, security personnel and self-appointed vigilantes like George Zimmerman. Trayvon Martin has become the face of the many young people who have been stopped-and-frisked and sometimes beaten and killed by the police. The police and the courts have created racially motivated drug laws that have been used as an excuse to incarcerate a huge percentage of young generations of Black and Brown youth. These same youth have the highest unemployment rate, and the jobs they are forced to take are low-wage jobs without benefits, rights or union representation. The anti-youth war also includes massive cuts in education, including school closings in Black and Brown communities. We must turn our anger over the lynching of Trayvon Martin into a new nationwide struggle to stop the war against Black and Brown youth. This is the best way to honor the legacy of the 50th anniversary of the 1963 March on Washington for Jobs and Freedom.
