

ATTENTION ALL WORKERS!!

DID YOU KNOW?

NO MATTER WHERE YOU WORK OR WHAT YOUR IMMIGRATION STATUS IS, YOU HAVE RIGHTS AS A WORKER:

- (1) to strike and demonstrate for better wages and conditions;
- (2) to distribute pro-organizing literature during non-work hours;
- (3) to talk to your co-workers about a union during non-work hours; and
- (4) to complain to your employer about your wages and working conditions, either alone or together with other co-workers.

-- IT IS ILLEGAL FOR YOUR EMPLOYER TO FIRE, DEMOTE, TRANSFER, REDUCE YOUR HOURS, CHANGE YOUR SHIFT, RETALIATE, or threaten to take any of these actions, for exercising any of the abovementioned rights where you work.

-- YOUR RIGHTS ARE PROTECTED BY THE NATIONAL LABOR RELATIONS BOARD (NLRB), AN AGENCY OF THE FEDERAL GOVERNMENT.

-- RECENTLY, WALMART WAS ORDERED BY THE NLRB to rehire workers that had been fired or disciplined for their legally protected involvement in fighting for a union and other worker's rights.

ORGANIZING IS THE BEST WAY TO PROTECT YOUR RIGHTS!

As important as it is being able to take your complaints to the NLRB, it is the power of workers organizing and standing together that protects your rights. Unfairly paid workers all over the country are starting to rise up and exercise their rights.

WE WILL HELP, ALONG WITH MANY OTHERS!
